

ADVANCED COMMA WITH DEPENDENT CLAUSES WORKSHEET

(Using the implied “that”)

Please underline the independent clauses, put parentheses around dependent clauses, and identify which sentence type each sentence is.

1. The officer who processed my passport put the stamp on the wrong page.
2. Once she was in Italy, Graziella knew immediately she wanted a Gelato.
3. The car Boris drove was a Smart Car, and he loved it.
4. Because Luca was on her computer during the violent electrical storm, the best-selling novel she had worked on for years was lost forever.
5. Alfonzo, who came from Salerno in southern Italy, motored about Rome in his Vespa he had purchased in Sicily.
6. We dined on rigatoni while the band played a beautiful melody everyone adored.
7. As Simone raced up the Spanish Steps, she realized she had forgotten her lover below; as she peered down the stairs, Nicolo Paganini waved to Simone whom he idolized.
8. This is a non-Italian sentence we can read without annoyance.
9. Before the Baroness Hildegarde von Schlippenhausen from Germany arrived, the Italians had never experienced a German who could correctly pronounce ratatouille.
10. Salvino, who made the best pizzas in Verona, baked designer pizzas from recipes he had learned from the pizza master, Frederico de Pepperoni.