ANNOUNCEMENTS

Free Speech &

Hate Speech Discussion

Where do we draw a line? Who gets to decide? How can PPCC address it? When is it okay to engage in content and conversations that make us feel uncomfortable? Stay tuned for a Facebook Live discussion where you can ask questions. Contact the Center for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion for more information at keith.barnes@ppcc.edu.

Mobile Food Market Volunteers

Volunteers are needed for the September 21 mobile food market. It will take place at the Centennial Campus Atrium, 11 am-1 pm. Help unload food and distribute it to students and the community. Become a volunteer at ppcc.edu/cares.

Fitness Center App

A new phone app coming soon will allow you to listen to what's playing on each of the four TVs while you are working out in the Centennial Fitness Center. For more info, visit the Fitness Center.

In Memoriam

Cheryl Ellard, a much loved and long-time PPCC staff member has recently passed away. Her name will be added to the College's Classified Employees Memorial Plaque.

Health Department Visit

At the college's request, an official from El Paso County Public Health did a detailed walk-through of our Centennial Campus recently. They were very complimentary of the college-wide initiatives taken and work done to keep our faculty, staff, and students safe. Every area visited was acknowledged for their efforts, signage, and for adherence to best practice guidelines.
