

Career and Technical Education (CTE) – Notice of Non-Discrimination

Pikes Peak Community College prohibits all forms of discrimination and harassment including those that violate federal and state law or the State Board for Community Colleges and Occupational Education Board Policies 3-120 and 4-120. The College does not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender, race, color, age, creed, national or ethnic origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, pregnancy status, religion, genetic information, gender identity, or sexual orientation in its employment practices or educational programs and activities. The College will take appropriate steps to ensure that the lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in vocational education programs. Additionally, CTE opportunities at the College will be offered without regard to sex, race, color, national origin, and disability.

Pikes Peak Community College offers a wide variety of CTE programs varying from Culinary Arts, Multimedia Graphic Design, Automotive Services and Emergency Medical Services, as examples. Individuals interested in applying for a CTE program can apply for admission at <https://www.ppcc.edu/enroll>. Note that some CTE programs have specific admissions criteria, in addition to the College's general admissions criteria. For a full list of CTE programs and admissions criteria, visit the online catalog at <https://www.ppcc.edu/catalog-schedule>.
