

Apostrophes to Show Possession Worksheet

When needed, add apostrophes to the following sentences.

1. A teachers responsibility is to educate students according to their capabilities.
2. We are spending the weekend at Joe and Roses new cabin.
3. All of the students papers were returned without grades on them.
4. Part of a projects success depends on careful planning.
5. The teachers and students expectations were quite different.
6. In the lab experiment, the ingested chemical resulted in the mices deaths.
7. We will sell no wine before its time.
8. What are your thoughts on Marys suggestions?
9. A dollars worth of gas isn't much.
10. Mrs. Simmons does not want to hear her employees complaints about their working conditions.